

THE SIGNS

A DEEPER EXPLORATION

WITH CHET ZDROWSKI

We will take a deep dive into the signs of the zodiac to learn the essence, nuances, and message of each.

Each sign has an agenda, a reason for being, and a set of values and needs. When we understand these, we gain insight into the deeper motivations that shape behavior and the strategies used to grow and find happiness.

The first four classes will cover the signs of each of the seasons. In the last two classes we will look at the pairs of opposites, and how they need each other to grow and evolve: We will use examples from the charts of class members to illustrate the principles being discussed.

CLASS PREPARATION

Please bring your astrology chart with you or provide your birth information at or before the first class so a chart can be prepared for you. This is one of the learning instruments for the class. No books are required.

INSTRUCTOR: Chet Zdrowski began studying astrology in 1977 with the psychological approach of renowned astrologer Richard Idemon and later the transpersonal astrology of Dane Rudhyar and Steve Arroyo. For the past seven years he has studied in Steven Forrest's Evolutionary Astrology Apprenticeship program, learning a deep fusion of psychological, transpersonal astrology with ancient metaphysics. Chet combines the depth of his understanding of astrology with a strong desire to help people discover their unique gifts and evolutionary paths.
