MARK JONES TWO-PART EVENT

Lecture: 10 a.m – 12 noon

The Pathway of the Moon

Workshop: 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Outer Planets Higher Octave of Inner Planets

The Pathway of the Moon: The Lunar Nodes as the key to personal evolution

This talk rediscovers the work of Dane Rudhyar on the Lunar Nodes and expands upon it to create a technically simple but psychologically profound way of exploring personal evolution through the birth-chart. The Nodes will be seen as expressing the arc of personal evolution and planets conjunct and square the nodes will be explored as influences upon that personal trajectory. The talk will be illustrated with examples from Mark's extensive client work.

The Outer Planets as the Higher Octave of the Inner Planets: How transpersonal forces shape personal evolution

This workshop re-examines Rudhyar's work on the outer planets being "higher octaves" of the inner planets. It explores the idea of the outer planets as representative of qualities within the Soul or Deep Self. This workshop introduces the idea that understanding the way that transpersonal energy shapes personal evolution, i.e. outer planets in aspect to inner planets or the lunar nodes, is the key to enable powerful transformation within the individual. The teaching will be illustrated with powerful case studies.
