Conception + Gestation + Birth = Creativity

LECTURE A New Vision of Astrology

Astrology describes your psychology and sense of self based on your birth chart. However, essential events in your life and relationships begin in the 9th house of the chart, when your mother and father conceive you. A New Vision of Astrology describes the circumstances and implications of your earliest and most deeply embedded experiences from then until birth on the Ascendant (rising sign), and maps events and their implications beyond, through your life up to the present, and ahead into your future. These earliest times are not even discussed in traditional astrology, but they are especially important as they are the deep patterns of your creativity, biology, sexuality and psychology. They are also a key to your potential transcendence.

WORKSHOP Conception + Gestation + Birth = Creativity

Life is a process in time. Gestation influences are the core of your biology, the collective unconscious, are deeply buried, and affected by your parents' relationship, and provide patterns that are somatic — built into your body. Indeed, the nature of their relationship during gestation is mirrored in your own relationships and more importantly, in your creativity. We will look at the gestation process and track it through your charts and show you how this affects your creativity and what to do about it. Through your childhood, into maturity and up to the present, and into the future, you are navigating your lifetime. Bring your chart!
