FRANK CLIFFORD

TWO-PART EVENT

Lecture: 10 a.m. – 12 noon

Workshop: 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.

LECTURE In the Midst of Every Difficulty Lies Opportunity: Making the Most of the Hard Aspects in Your Horoscope

When two parts of the chart are in aspect to each another, a dialogue is formed. The nature of that interaction – the flow of energy – is revealed by the specific planets and aspect involved. In spite of what some books will tell you, the so-called 'hard' aspects bring the greatest rewards and describe our greatest successes – IF we recognise the invitation and accept the challenge. In this new seminar, join Frank to explore the nature of the 'hard' aspects (from the opposition to the square to the sesquiquadrate) and see how these can be best used in your life, work and relationship patterns. Bring your charts!

WORKSHOP Behind the Steering Wheel: Your Chart Ruler

Your Ascendant is a vehicle that showcases a general attitude or outlook – one that you adopt to negotiate and interact with the world around you. It's your open agenda and personality (i.e. your personal reality). But each Ascendant has a ruler with twelve possible sign placements (and aspects to that ruler). The Chart Ruler reveals the motivation or hidden directive behind the Ascendant – it is you as the driver of the vehicle and the route you wish to take. Join Frank to explore examples of the Chart Ruler from his files and from the group.

Frank Clifford is a consultant astrologer-palmist who lectures internationally, runs the London School of Astrology, and writes for (and guest edits) 'The Mountain Astrologer'. He has written 12 volumes, including 'Getting to the Heart of Your Chart', 'The Solar Arc Handbook', 'The Midheaven: Spotlight on Success' and 'Palmistry 4 Today'. Frank won a writing award from ISAR in 2016 and was the youngest recipient of The Charles Harvey Award in 2012—a lifetime achievement honour for exceptional service to astrology. In 2019 he will launch a series of online courses and publish a new textbook for students. www.frankclifford.co.uk, info@flareuk.com
